

Former UI College of Law Dean Faces Criminal Charges

2009-09-05 11:18:36

A former University of Illinois College of Law dean finds herself in some legal hot water. Read more at WGNTV.com...

Former UI law school assistant dean charged with stealing from Chicago agency

Authorities say a former assistant business dean at the University of Illinois College of Law had been charged with stealing $20,000 from a Chicago city agency.

Cook County State's Attorney Anita Alvarez says 38-year-old Ming Liu of Urbana, also known as Ming Liu Bengtsson, was indicted for theft, official misconduct and forgery.

Liu is accused of stealing $20,000 intended to promote tourism while working as a project administrator with the city of Chicago's Department of Cultural Affairs from 1997 through June 2006.